PROGRAM OF EVENTS

Workshop:

"Art and Attention – or – How to Turn Down the Volume of Your Brain's Default Mode Network"

by Greg Woodsbie

Time: 9 am

Location: Todd Union Dance Studio

Description: This workshop will guide participants through explorations of the questions "How are we as audience members actually the co-creators of any work we are present for?", and, "How and why does art make us less neurotic and more available for others?"

Projection in the Quad:

Time: Dusk until after dark

Location: Wilson Quad

Description: Turn your focus up as you walk by!
